

AA Projects Recruits New Divisional Director

Construction and Property Consultants, AA Projects, has recruited a new Divisional Director to manage and develop the Quantity Surveying business across the five regional offices. This is a new role for this growing organisation and Andrew Elson FRICS joins AA Projects from Cyril Sweett, where he has 20 years experience of expanding their Manchester office.

Andrew has been working in the construction industry for over 25 years and has specific experience on commercial, retail and mixed use schemes, including a number of North West landmark buildings: Manchester Royal Exchange for Prudential, Marks and Spencer's Manchester, 1 New York St for Bruntwood, refurbishment of St Georges Hall in Liverpool, 82 King St Manchester and Stamford Centre Altrincham. He also has extensive experience in the transport sector, working on schemes which include Luton and Bradford rail stations and Nelson and Burnley bus stations.

Andrew brings specific skills in providing pre-contract advice to clients where the challenges of cost, time and quality need to be overcome and value can be added to a scheme. He is a member of the British Council of Offices (BCO) and the British Council of Shopping Centres (BCSC) and brings a wealth of experience to the team.

Andrew says, "I am excited to be joining such a dynamic, forward thinking organisation. AA Projects is a highly successful regional business with an impressive portfolio of projects and I am looking forward to using my previous experience to develop greater opportunities.
